

DekTec Appoints Nilesh Mandalia as VP Sales

Hilversum, 15th January 2007 – DekTec expands with the recruitment of Nilesh Mandalia as VP Sales. Mandalia was previously at Digi-Box.co.uk, where he was responsible for successfully developing DekTec in the UK. Sito Dekker, CEO and founder of DekTec is delighted to strengthen the Sales function, preparing DekTec for the next phase of its growth plans. This will be complemented by Nilesh's experience of Video and Communications test solutions gained through successful sales and rental for the digital compression and conversions in the transmission industry.

About DekTec Digital Video B.V.

DekTec is a multi-award winning and innovative leader in the design and manufacturing of cost-effective digital-video solutions that is empowering video professionals to improve digital-video infrastructure workflows.

Solutions based around IP, PCI, PCIe and USB hardware and easy to use software providing Player, Multiplexer, Record, Analyser, and all Modulation schemes including DVB-H and DVB-S2, all at prices that will be music to the engineer's ear! The solutions have been embraced successfully by OEMs as result of extensive and growing APIs.

About Nilesh Mandalia

Nilesh started in sales of Electronic Components at Jermyn (Now part of Arrow) in the late eighties, followed by rental of Test & Measurement with Livingston UK Ltd.

At Livingston, Nilesh pioneered long term rentals in the communications and in particular the video test market. At Digi-Box.co.uk, Mandalia grew a comprehensive range of solutions from market leading companies complemented by rental service video solutions ensuring an independent single source supplier of marketing leading solution for the main video test segments.